The American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences has been helping members grow personally and professionally since our founding in 1909 as the American Home Economics Society. Though our profession has expanded and evolved through the years, our core values remain.

Association members:

- Believe in the family as a fundamental unit of society.
- Embrace diversity and value all people.
- Support life-long learning and diverse scholarship.
- Exemplify integrity and ethical behavior.
- Seek new ideas and initiatives and embrace change.
- Promote an integrative and holistic approach, aligned with the FCS body of knowledge, to support professionals who work with individuals, families, and communities.

"Family and consumer sciences offers so much to so many. It is a field that is seated at the heart of the quality of life; something that touches each and every one of us."

- Gus Vouchilas, San Francisco State University
